Jason's Jeans

The secret to looking like a country star? According to Jason Aldean, it's the right jeans. "I like my jeans tight in the thighs and butt, but toward the knee down I want them to flare out," says Aldean, the spokesman for Wrangler's new Retro line. "When they start looking ragged out, that's when I like 'em the best."

Jason's Wrangler line sells for $55-$60

Common SCENTS!

With new his and hers fragrances—his hits stores this month, hers is out in October—Tim McGraw and Faith Hill talk scents

"I wanted to do it for a very long time. Fragrance, like a song, will transport you instantly."

WHY THEY DID IT

"It's always fun to try something new and step outside of my comfort zone."

"A floral, but not a sweet floral. The warmth of the musk and scents like that round it out."

WHAT IT SMELLS LIKE

Hints of grapefruit and tobacco. "It's rugged and sophisticated at the same time."

"Magnolias, gardenias, the crisp pear that reminds me of a summer day in Mississippi."

WHAT INSPIRED IT

"The spirit of the southern lifestyle... sitting on the porch, smelling the fresh air after a hard day's work."

"Tim was very helpful. He has to like it. It would not be good to wear something that turns him off!"

SPOUSAL INPUT

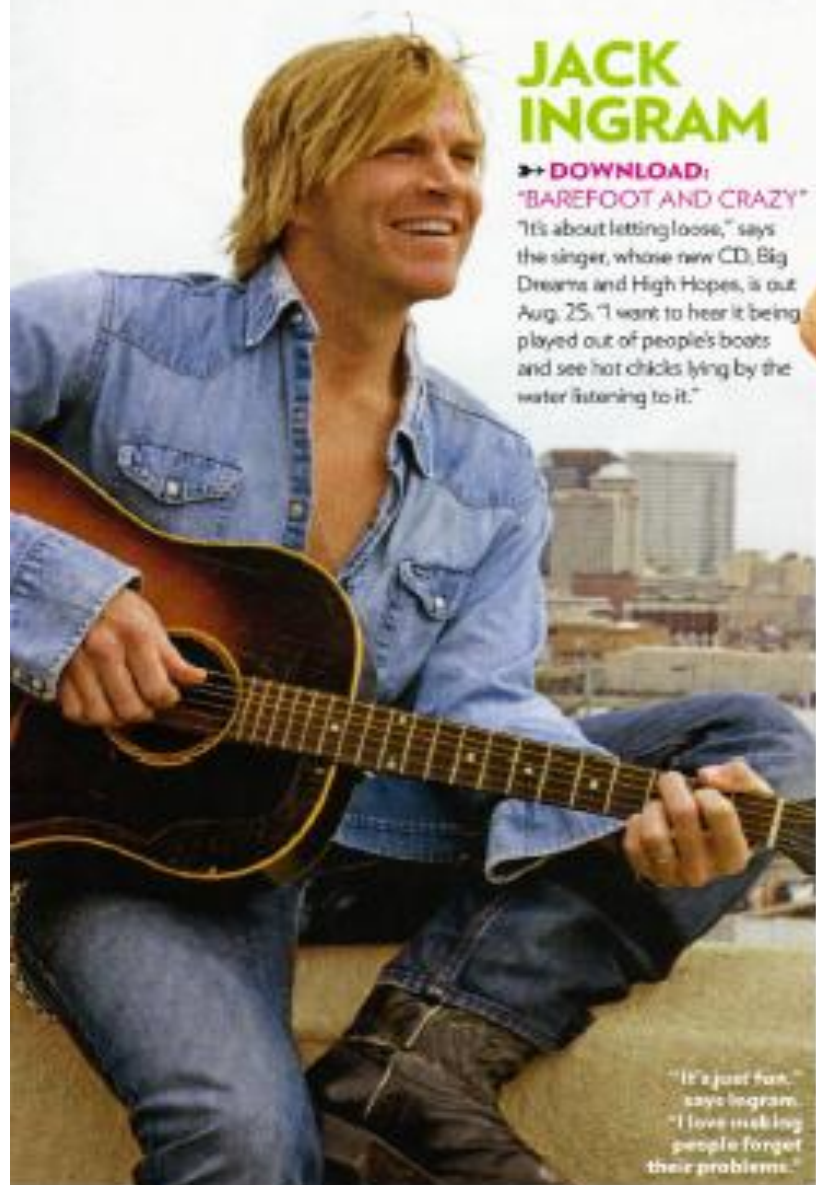

"Faith has to like it. She is the most beautiful woman in the world; her opinion carries a lot of weight."
